ASO (Administrative Services Only) Provider

Health Association of Nova Scotia has contracted The Canada Life Assurance Company to adjudicate claims and issue payment for eligible claims to the appropriate party. The Plan is self insured and Canada Life has no liability for any benefits outlined in this booklet.

This means that the benefits are:

- an unsecured financial obligation and are payable from Health Association of Nova Scotia's net income, retained earnings or other financial resources; and
- not underwritten by a licensed insurer or regulated insurer.

If British Columbia law applies, the giving of this notice exempts Health Association of Nova Scotia from the requirements under the Financial Institutions Act (British Columbia).

If Quebec law applies, any uninsured benefit is not under the supervision and control of the Autorité des marchés financiers.

Legal Actions

No legal action to recover non-insured benefits under this plan can be introduced for 60 days after notice of claim is submitted, or more than two years after a benefit has been denied.

Appeals

You have the right to appeal a denial of all or part of the coverage or benefits described in this plan as long as you do so within two years after the denial. An appeal must be in writing and must include your reasons for believing the denial to be incorrect.

Benefit Limitation for Overpayment

If benefits are overpaid you are responsible for repayment within six months, or within a longer period if agreed to by your employer. If you fail to fulfill this responsibility, further benefits will be withheld until the overpayment is recovered. This does not limit your employer's right to use other legal means to recover the overpayment.

Eligibility for Coverage

You are eligible to participate in the plan on the date your retirement begins if you retired with an unreduced pension prior to age 55, are at least 55 years old, have completed 10 or more years of continuous employment with your employer or prior facility, and were covered for the same benefit under your employer's benefit program the day before you retired.

You may elect coverage, within 31 days of becoming eligible following the waiting period, by completing an application. Coverage is effective on the date of eligibility, except when the application is made after the 31 day period. If coverage is not applied for within the 31 days period, late limitations will apply.

Eligible Dependents

Dependents are defined as your legal spouse (as described below), and unmarried dependent children including natural, legally adopted or step-children. Children of a common-law spouse may be covered if they are living with the retiree. All dependents must be residents of Canada and be eligible for benefits under the provincial government health care programs in the province of residence in order to be eligible for coverage.

The term "spouse" is defined as a person of the opposite or same sex who is legally married to the retiree, or has continuously resided with the retiree for not less than one full year having been represented as members of a conjugal relationship (common law). In the event of divorce, legal separation, or discontinuance of cohabitation (common law spouse), you may elect to continue coverage of the former spouse or to provide notice to Health Association of Nova Scotia to terminate coverage for the spouse. Coverage may continue with or without a court order. The Plan will at no time provide coverage for more than one spouse under the same Plan.

Dependent children are eligible for benefits if they are less than 21 years of age or, if 21 years of age but less than 26 years of age, they must be attending an accredited educational institution, college or university on a full-time basis.

Unmarried children 21 years of age or older qualify if they are dependent upon the retiree by reason of a mental or physical disability and have been continuously so disabled since the age of 21. Unmarried children who became totally disabled while attending an accredited educational institution, college or university on a full-time basis prior to the age of 26 and have been continuously disabled since that time also qualify as a dependent.

Dependent coverage begins for your eligible dependents on the same date as your coverage, or as soon as they become eligible dependents if added later, provided that dependent benefits were applied for within 31 days of their becoming eligible. If coverage is not applied for within this 31 day period, late limitations will apply.

Late Applicant

When a retiree and/or dependent become eligible for benefits, the group enrolment form must be received by the Employer within 31 days of their eligibility date. If this form is received after 31 days, the retiree and/or dependent will be considered a late applicant and coverage will be limited to the following benefits for the first six months following the effective date of coverage:

- Eye Refraction only, and
- Prescription Drug Benefit.

Coordination of Benefits

- Benefits for you or a dependent will be directly reduced by any amount payable under a government plan. If you or a dependent are entitled to benefits for the same expenses under another group plan or as both a retiree and dependent under this Plan or as a dependent of both parents under this Plan, benefits will be co-ordinated so that the total benefits from all plans will not exceed expenses.
- You and your spouse should first submit your own claims through your own group Plan. Claims for dependent children should be submitted to the Plan of the parent who has the earlier birth date in the calendar year (the year of birth is not considered). If you are separated or divorced, the Plan which will pay benefits for your children will be determined in the following order:
  1. the Plan of the parent with custody of the child;
  2. the Plan of the spouse of the parent with custody of the child;
  3. the Plan of the parent without custody of the child;
  4. the Plan of the spouse of the parent without custody of the child

You may submit a claim to the Plan of the other spouse for any amount which is not paid by the first Plan.

Termination of Benefits

All benefits cease at the earlier of when you are no longer eligible or the plan terminates.

Prescription drug coverage for the retiree and/or dependents, ceases upon attainment of age 65 years.

Except to the extent otherwise required by law, your dependents' coverage terminates on the earliest of the following dates:

- the date your coverage terminates;
- the date you cease to be a qualified retiree;
- for prescription drug coverage for your spouse, the date your spouse reaches age 65;
- the date you cease to be in a class eligible for dependent coverage;
- the date your dependent ceases to be a qualified dependent; or
- for your spouse, the day before the effective date of a change to a new covered spouse.

Survivor Benefits

If you die while your coverage is in force, the health benefits for your dependents will be continued for a period of 30 days or until they no longer qualify, whichever occurs first.

Conversion Privilege

If you should terminate employment, you may convert to an individual Health Plan. Please contact your Benefits Department for further information within 31 days following your termination.

Prior Authorization of a Claim

In order to determine whether coverage is provided for certain services or supplies, Canada Life maintains a limited list of services and supplies that require prior authorization.

For services and supplies, including a listing of the prior authorization drugs, go to www.canadalife.com.

Prior authorization is intended to help ensure that a service or supply represents a reasonable treatment.

If the use of a lower cost alternative service or supply represents reasonable treatment, Canada Life may require you or your dependent to provide medical evidence why the lower cost alternative service or supply cannot be used before coverage may be provided for the service or supply.

Health Case Management

Canada Life may contact you to participate in health case management. Health case management is a program recommended or approved by Canada Life that may include but is not limited to:

- consultation with you or your dependent and the attending physician to gain understanding of the treatment plan recommended by the attending physician;
- comparison with the attending physician, of the recommended treatment plan with alternatives, if any, that represent reasonable treatment;
- identification to the attending physician of opportunities for education and support; and
- monitoring your or your dependent's adherence to the treatment plan recommended by the attending physician.

In determining whether to implement health case management, Canada Life may assess such factors as the service or supply, the medical condition, and the existence of generally accepted medical guidelines for objectively measuring medical effectiveness of the treatment plan recommended by the attending physician.

Health Case Management Limitation

Canada Life can, on such terms as it determines, limit the payment of benefits for a service or supply where:

- Canada Life has implemented health case management and you or your dependent do not participate or cooperate; or
- you or your dependent have not adhered to the treatment plan recommended by the attending physician with respect to the use of the service or supply.

Designated Provider Limitation

For a service or supply to which prior authorization applies or where Canada Life has recommended or approved health case management, Canada Life can require that a service or supply be purchased from or administered by a provider designated by Canada Life, and:

- limit the covered expense for a service or supply that was not purchased from or administered by a provider designated by Canada Life to the cost of the service or supply had it been purchased from or administered by the provider designated by Canada Life; or
- decline a claim for a service or supply that was not purchased from or administered by a provider designated by Canada Life.

Patient Assistance Program

A patient assistance program may provide financial, educational or other assistance to you or your dependents with respect to certain services or supplies.

If you or your dependents are eligible for a patient assistance program, Canada Life can require you or your dependent to apply to and participate in such a program. Where financial assistance is available from a patient assistance program in which Canada Life requires participation, Canada Life can reduce the amount of a covered expense for a service or supply by the amount of financial assistance you or your dependent is entitled to receive for that service or supply.
